

Kirk Altrichter, Kenan Advantage Group (KAG), Executive Vice President, Fleet Services

Kirk has been with Kenan Advantage Group as their Executive Vice President of Fleet Services since 2016. Prior to Kenan, he was with Crete Carrier Corporation, in Lincoln, NE for 3 years. Prior to Crete he was with Gordon Trucking, Inc. (GTI) in Pacific, WA for 15 years. Prior to GTI, he worked for Schneider National Carriers, Inc., Green Bay, WI for 5 years. He retired from the United States Marine Corps in 2003 as a Chief Warrant Officer-3, after 22 years of service and tours of duty in Grenada, Beirut, Desert Storm and Iraqi Freedom.

Kirk has a Bachelors degree in Business Administration from Millersville University, Millersville, Pennsylvania, and a Masters degree in Business Administration from Lebanon Valley College in Annville, Pennsylvania.

Kirk is the past General Chairman of the American Trucking Associations Technology & Maintenance Council and past Chairman of the American Trucking Associations Technical Advisory Group. He is also the past chairman of the Washington Trucking Association Maintenance Council.

