

James Reed serves as Kodiak's Chief Operating Officer. James brings to Kodiak over 25 years of experience in technology, manufacturing, banking, logistics, and finance. Prior to joining Kodiak, James served as President and CEO of USA Truck, a publicly traded logistics and transportation company. He also served on USA Truck's Board of Directors. Before USA Truck, James was Chief Financial Officer of Interstate Distributor Co. and President of its subsidiaries Interstate Distributor Logistics and Spectrum Logistics. He previously held corporate and operational finance roles at Intel Corp, EMC, T-Mobile USA, and Chase. James graduated from Brigham Young University with his bachelor's degree and also his master's in business administration.