

Charley Moore

Charley Moore is the Chief Commercial Officer for TrinityRail®, headquartered in Dallas, Texas.

TrinityRail is a comprehensive railcar leasing company enabled by manufacturing and services. With over 140,000 leased and managed railcars in its portfolio, it is a leading provider of comprehensive rail transportation products and solutions, including digitally enabled logistics services, manufacturing resources, railcar management, parts and maintenance.

Charley joined TrinityRail in 2018 leading the Customer Delivery and Fleet Management Solutions team. He was promoted in 2020 to Senior Vice President Agriculture sales. In January 2024, Charley was promoted to his current role of Chief Commercial Officer of TrinityRail. Before joining TrinityRail, Charley spent 18 years with BNSF Railway, where he worked in increasing leadership roles across Customer Service, Audit, Equipment Management, and Sales.

Charley received his Bachelor of Science in Marketing from Harding University and later received his MBA from Texas Christian University (TCU). Charley also taught Supply Chain at TCU for 5 years after graduating with his MBA. Charley has been married to his wife, Lana, for 27 years, and they are the proud parents of two daughters, Kylee (21) and Katie (18).