

Joe Devoe

Senior Vice President

Joe joined Landesbank Hessen-Thüringen (Helaba) in May 2019 following their purchase of DVB Bank's Land Transport Finance Division. He was hired by DVB in 2002 to establish North American coverage for the land-based transportation asset marketplace. A team was built which continues to cover North American surface transportation industries with a focus on rail and road asset finance offering an array of structured asset finance products.

At DVB Mr. Devoe also served as its Chief Representative and was a Finra licensed member of DVB Capital Markets, LLC, served on its board as well as other local DVB entity boards.

Prior to joining DVB, he managed the Transportation Finance Department within the US Corporate Bank at Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi Trust Company in NY.

He began his career at Chase Manhattan Bank where he received his formal credit training and served in several positions before ultimately managing the Kora Desk in New York.

Joe earned his BS in Finance from Fairfield University.
