

Justin Danks

Justin is currently the Vice President of Operations at Sunset Transportation. Heading into his 13th year at Sunset, this is Justin's 5th role there. He has been a part of all Sunset operations including execution, pricing, procurement, business development and leadership. In his previous role as Managing Director (St. Louis branch) the operation grew staff from 35 to 105 Sunsetters strong. That role had Justin responsible for branch structure, organization, P&L management, compensation programs, conflict resolution, team building, new shift design and strategic vision. Now, as VP, Justin supports and leads all Sunset Operations.
