

Tom Curee serves as the Senior Vice President for Kingsgate Logistics. He has spent over 15 years in the transportation industry, working with both brokerages and carriers. He has built an innovation team in the last few years that has earned Kingsgate the reputation of a FreightTech 100 company and as a leading innovator in the logistics field. His team are leaders in the space of analytics, custom integrations, workflow automation, and leveraging new technologies like artificial intelligence and machine learning.