

Tyler Dickman is the Vice President of Railcar Portfolio Management at GATX Corporation, where he is responsible for GATX's 122,000-car North American railcar fleet. Previously, Mr. Dickman held a variety of roles within GATX's Fleet department since joining in 2014. Prior to his career at GATX, Tyler held multiple positions at TTX Company, managing automotive and general equipment car types. Tyler received a BA from Texas Tech University and his MBA from Loyola University Chicago.