

John Goldman was promoted to President of the Louisville & Indiana Railroad in July 2014 after joining the Company as vice president in November 2012. He has more than 25 years of railroad experience, beginning his career in 1995 with Norfolk Southern in Louisville, Kentucky. He joined the Canadian National Railway in 2004, where he served as superintendent of the Iowa and Valley Zones, senior manager of CN's Regional Operations Center, and assistant to the Southern Region Senior VP. He is a former member of Safety and Operations Management Committee of the AAR and currently serves as President of the Indiana Railroad Coalition. Indiana University (BA).