

David Marsh, Executive Vice President of Intermodal at Transplace, an Uber Freight company

David Marsh is the EVP of Intermodal at Transplace, an Uber Freight company. He joined Transplace in 2019 and has brought decades of experience in operational, executive and commercial leadership to the organization. He is a strong leader with a successful track record of creating customer-focused solutions and improving customer satisfaction. He has implemented business strategies, plans and procedures to partner relationships, as well as drive sustainable growth. Prior to Transplace, David held numerous executive leadership roles within Hub Group.