

Meredith A. Neizer

Chief Logistics Officer

Meredith oversees all aspects of Armada's operations including transportation and warehousing functions, field services and inventory management. She has been with Armada for 7 years and has been instrumental in leading new strategic and operational transportation initiatives.

Prior to joining Armada, Meredith served as the Chief Operating Officer for iGPS Company, LLC. Her foodservice experience includes positions at US Foods as Senior Vice President of Operations and President of Alliant Logistics, and at The Martin-Brower Company, LLC, as President of MBX Logistics and Vice President of its Canada operations and Central America/Puerto Rico regions. Meredith spent her early career in the maritime industry holding various domestic and international general management roles for privately and publicly held organizations.

Meredith is a board member of Wonolo, Inc., Mastery Logistics, Customized Distribution, Inc. (CDI) and the National Industrial Transportation League (NITL). In addition, she served as a White House Fellow working for the Secretary of Defense and has held both federal and state political commission appointments related to defense and maritime policy.

Meredith holds a B.S. (honors) from the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy and an M.B.A. from Stanford University Graduate School of Business.
